SWITZERLAND

Since time immemorial, Switzerland has been synonymous with peace & prosperity - and to date, it has lived up to expectations, attracting many retirees, business people, and health tourists alike.

Although not an EU Member State, Switzerland has close ties with the EU in many areas, including trade and free movement of people. Switzerland is also an associate member in the Schengen agreement.

Ranking amongst the top economies in the world, Switzerland boasts of low unemployment and high GDP per capita. This in turn provides political stability and unmatched security in the country, making it an attractive destination for settlement.

LEGAL BASIS FOR OBTAINING A SWISS RESIDENT PERMIT
